THREE HEROES DIE SAVING OTHERS IN BURNING TUNNEL

Aid Twenty-three Men to Escape Death in Pennsylvania Shaft, Then Are Suffocated in Strangling Fumes of Pent-In Lock.

Three young workmen sacrificed themselves to-day, saying twentythree others, in a thick, choky fire in the new Pennsylvania tunnel under Long Island City. The three are dead, but the twenty-three are saved.

The victims met a miserable end. They strangled in a fastened-in lock of the long bore, suffocated by foul fumes and the killing reek of burning wood. The names of these three heroes are: CHAPMAN, GEORGE, thirty-two years old, of No. 300 Eight

After the Army of INVASION Comes the Army of OCCUPATION In the Book Trust War.

The public generally and the book publishers individually know that R. H. Macy & Co. have SINGLE-HANDED waged a long fight against the combination of publishers known as the Book Trust.

 The Trust insisted upon controlling the price of its product from the printing presses to the reader's !ibrary. The lowest price a dealer could ask for a late book was $1.08. The dealer who dared to self below that figure incurred the ill will of the Trust and could buy no more books direct.

R. H. Macy & Co. ALONE denied the Trust's right to dictate selling prices. They expressed that denial most effectively by continuing to sell late books AT LOWER PRICES THAN ANY OTHER DEALER IN THE LAND.

The war has been in progress several years, and the burden has been borne wholly by R. H. Macy & Co. At great expense we have waged our fight in the courts, and MOST SUCCESSFULLY. "It has reached a stage where there is but one step more-The United States Supreme Court — then the Book Trust fight will be over.

Since 1901 every store in New York, with the single exception of R. H. Macy & Co., has been servile to the Book Trust. We invaded "the enemy's country" and set up the Flag of Independence in retailing. Now the way is comparatively clear.
